2019-2020
Based on the RE Policy Manual, 2018

As members and friends of our religious community, we understand that all persons deserve a safe, and positive environment as part of their religious education experiences. For retreats held at First Unitarian Church as well as off-site trips, the following rules apply:

1. There shall be no more than six youth for each adult attending.
2. Youth must be supervised by two adults at all times.
3. Exterior doors will remained locked at all times.
4. Sleepovers will be in Gilbert Hall. Classrooms or other areas are not to be entered during an overnight.
5. No one is given access to the building who is not known to a chaperone.
6. Drugs, alcohol, tobacco, and other illegal or controlled substances are prohibited.
7. Church property (such as wheelchairs) is used only for its intended purpose.
8. Weapons are prohibited, as are violent or harassing actions or words.
9. Engaging in sexual activity or exclusive behavior is prohibited. No shared bedding.
10. Once the event has begun, no youth may arrive or leave the building without the approval of the adults in charge. Lock-in hours will be observed.
11. All adults must be aware of, sign, and abide by the Code of Ethics.
12. Drivers must meet criteria and sign Driver Safety Form.

I have read these rules over with my teen and understand that any violation will result in an immediate phone call to me, the DRE, and possible dismissal from the event. My emergency contact information is listed below, as is any health, dietary or special needs of my child:
